

HEBREWS:
CHRIST IN ALL OF SCRIPTURE
AMEN BIBLE STUDY 2017-2018

God Trains His Own Sons
Hebrews 12:4-17
April 26, 2018

Scripture Intro

Introduction

Proposition: To endure, keep your Father's perspective on trials.

- I. Path (v. 3): You are following the same path as Jesus
- II. Perspective (v. 4): You have not yet shed blood
- III. Proof (vs. 5-9): You are beloved sons
- IV. Punctuated (v. 10): Your suffering is temporary
- V. Productive (v. 11): You will peacefully receive righteousness

Conclusion

Discussion Questions

1. Are you more prone to view trials as reason to quit or God's loving purpose?
2. What comfort does Hebrews 12:3 give us when we face trials?
3. How does this passage show us that facing trials and/or discipline proves our salvation?
4. How does verse 10 shape our perspective relative to trials and/or suffering?
5. What is the end result of our discipline, suffering, and trials?

Going Deeper

1. Do trials tend to make you angry at God or to look for his loving purposes behind them?
2. How might current trials in your life be pointing you to Christ?