

ORDER FOR THE PUBLIC WORSHIP of GOD

February 1, 2015 11:00 a.m.

Preparation for Worship

As you enter the Sanctuary, please prepare your heart for worship and silence your mobile devices.

The Word of God energizes and suffuses all that we do in corporate worship. Our songs are laced with the Bible. Our prayers are saturated with the Word. Our readings highlight the precious promises of the Word. Why do we do this? God uses His Word to make us wise for salvation through faith in Jesus Christ (II Timothy 3:15).

This motivated John Wesley to have one overarching passion in his life: "I want to know one thing: The way to heaven; how to land safe on that happy shore. God Himself has condescended to teach the way; for this very end He came from heaven. He has written it down in a book. O give me that book! At any price, give me the book of God... Let me be 'homo unius libri,' a man of one Why not make this your resolve in 2015?

Prayer of Preparation

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

 $SCRIPTURE READING
 McLean Collison Meeks

 based on verses from Isaiah 41, 43 and Hebrews 13

Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you.

Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, 'I will never leave you nor forsake you.'

So we can confidently say, "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?"

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE FOUNDATION
The soul that on Jesus has leaned for repose, I will not, I will not desert to his foes; That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake, I'll never, no never, no never forsake.

HYMN OF ASSURANCE: No. 689 "Be Still, My Soul" FINLANDIA stanza 1
CORPORATE PRAYER OF CONFESSION. Braxton Dale Brady Chaplain, Presbyterian Day School
Gracious and holy Father You live in a high and holy place, but also with those who are repentant and lowly in spirit. Yet our hearts are proud and our eyes are haughty. We look down on others and are absorbed with ourselves. We chase after things too great and too difficult for us. We plead Your mercy and ask Your forgiveness for our noisy, restless and demanding ways. Empower us by Your Spirit to turn away from pride and self-centeredness so that we imitate the One who was gentle and humble of heart. For we pray in Jesus' name, Amen.

PRESENTATION OF TITHES AND OFFERINGS John Wesley Butler III
OFFERTORY ANTHEM: "Tree Song"
I saw a tree by the riverside one day as I walked along, Straight as an arrow and pointing to the sky, growing tall and strong. How do you grow so tall and strong, I said to the riverside tree. This is the song that my tree friend sang to me.
I've got roots growing down to the water, I've got leaves growing up to the sunshine, And the fruit that I bear is a sign of the life in me. I am shade from the hot summer sundown, I am nest for the birds of the heaven,

I'm becoming what the Lord of Lords has meant me to be,

A strong young tree.

I saw a tree in the wintertime when snow lay on the ground, Straight as an arrow and pointing to the sky, and winter winds blew all around. How do you stay so tall and strong, I said to the wintertime tree.

This is the song that my tree friend sang to me.

I saw a tree in the city streets where buildings blocked the sun, Green and lovely I could see it gave joy to everyone. How do you grow in the city streets, I said to the downtown tree. This is the song that my tree friend sang to me.
