

MEMPHIS FELLOWS

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FELLOWS is a leadership development program and internship for recent college graduates. Over the next nine months, these students will participate in many activities to help them grow spiritually, gain career experience, and serve others as a community. We look forward to seeing these young adults around our church campus this year!

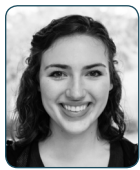

MORGAN BROWN is a graduate of Clemson University with a major in Psychology and a minor in Education. The youngest of five girls, she grew up in Greenville, South Carolina and loves hanging out at coffee shops, being outside, and going on road trips. Morgan hopes to one day go skydiving, vacation at Fiji, participate in an overseas mission trip, and travel around Europe. Morgan will be working at New Hope Christian School. She is living with Ryan, Stacey, and Eleanor Hays and will be mentored by Grace Terhune.

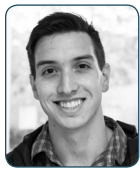

COLE CRIDDLE is a graduate of Southeast Missouri State University with a major in Organismal/Ecological/Evolutionary Biology. Originally from Carterville, Illinois, Cole enjoys reading, spending time with friends, eating Chinese food, and watching The Lord of the Rings trilogy. He recently returned from Thailand and hopes to go overseas again for two or three years sometime in the near future. Cole will be working at SouthernSun Asset Management. He is living with Greg, Marian, and Jon Staffel and will be mentored by Ron Hickman.

TYLER HOOG is a graduate of Southeast Missouri State University with a major in Applied Mathematics. He grew up in Festus, Missouri and enjoys grilling, playing sports, and reading. Tyler lived in Thailand for two months last summer and was a founding father of Phi Delta Theta fraternity at SEMO. He is engaged to be married in December and hopes to become a pastor sometime in the future. Tyler will be working at Boosterthon. He is living with Rick and Carey Moore, and will be mentored by Matthew Gant.

ANNA JENNESS is a graduate of Arkansas State University with a degree in Communication Disorders. She grew up in Jonesboro, Arkansas alongside her three siblings and their ridiculously adorable dog, Scout. She enjoys reading, painting, listening to 60s and 70s rock music, and drinking lots of coffee. She has traveled to Haiti for mission work and was also a member of the CEP China team with Campus Outreach this past summer. Anna is looking forward to scoping out the coffee shops in Memphis for the best cappuccino and reading spot. Anna will be working at Le Bonheur. She is living with Tread, Chancey, and "T" Thompson and will be mentored by Linda Hull.

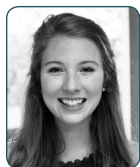

RICHARD MCGUIRE is a graduate from Rhodes College, where he studied Biochemistry and Molecular Biology. He is originally from Frisco, Texas and loves Netflix, reading, hiking, drawing occasionally, and running half marathons (when coerced by friends). Richard hopes to graduate from medical school at UT San Antonio and one day open a clinic that offers free care to the homeless and poor. Richard will be working at Ortho Memphis. He is living with Joel, Beth, Parker, and Peyton Kaye, and will be mentored by Blake Bergeron.

RACHAEL MILLER is a graduate of Mississippi State University with a degree in Psychology and a concentration in Counseling. Rachael was born in Southern California but grew up in Collierville, Tennessee. Some of her favorite things are: music, coffee shops, game nights with friends, travel, Mexican food, reading blogs, and hosting dinner parties. She loves to cook and spent her high school summers teaching kids' cooking camps. Rachael hopes to one day travel to Santorini, Greece, and plans to pursue a Masters in Counseling after Fellows. She will be working at Life Choices and the Christian Psychological Center. She is living with Jason, Christy, and Ben Zeigler and will be mentored by Laura Lee Jones.

ERICA TSAI is a graduate of Vanderbilt University where she studied Medicine, Health, and Society & Neuroscience. She grew up in Brentwood, Tennessee and enjoys traveling, being outdoors, attending concerts, and cooking. In Fall 2016, she will begin medical school at the University of Tennessee. At some point in the future she hopes to travel all 50 states, climb a “fourteener” in Colorado, and participate in medical mission work. Erica will be working at Le Bonheur. She is living with Mark and Debbie Perkins and will be mentored by Mary Grace Walters.

SARAH CAITLIN WHEAT is a graduate of Mississippi State University with a degree in Special Education. She grew up in Colorado Springs and moved with her family to Jackson, Mississippi, where she has lived ever since. Sarah Caitlin loves spending time with her friends and family, and enjoys photography and music. She is looking forward to having new adventures in Memphis and is especially excited to be in a city with plenty of live music. She hopes to one day become an Occupational Therapist and work with children with disabilities. Sarah Caitlin will be working with Second’s children’s ministry and as a children and family teacher at Shelby Residential and Vocational Services. She is living with Rachel, Brandon, Blake, and Andrew Hammons and will be mentored by Susan Denney.

CLAYTON WILLIAMS is a graduate of the University of Tennessee with a degree in Microbiology and a minor in Business Administration. He moved around a lot growing up, but calls Memphis his home. He enjoys hanging out with friends, watching or playing sports, and hunting. He’s also a big Memphis Grizzlies fan and loves to try out new restaurants around the city.

Clayton hopes to pursue finance and become an investment analyst in the future and to some day see a Premier League soccer game in England. Clayton will be working in Second’s business office. He is living with Lloyd, Cindy, Miller, and Brooke Grissinger and will be mentored by Mike Warner

VIRGINIA WILSON is a graduate of Clemson University with a degree in Communication Studies and a minor in Visual Arts. She grew up in Columbia, South Carolina and loves being around people and being spontaneous. She has never been to Memphis, but can’t wait to get to know her new city. Her hobbies are being outside, drinking coffee, taking too many pictures on her iPhone, and cheering on her Clemson Tigers. Her bucket list includes taking a cross-country road trip and seeing all of her favorite artists in concert. Virginia will be working at KBM Group. She is living with Marshall and Sue Clark and will be mentored by Lauren Gant.
