

MEMPHIS FELLOWS

Fellows is a leadership development program and internship for recent college graduates. Over the next nine months, these Fellows will participate in many activities to help them grow spiritually, gain career experience, and serve others.

Caitlin Adkins grew up in southwestern Virginia and recently graduated from The University of Virginia with a degree in Religious Studies and a concentration in Pre-Pharmacy. Last summer she interned in Memphis and fell in love with Central BBQ, Jerry's Sno Cones, the various murals, and, most importantly, the city. Caitlin enjoys CrossFit, eating Oreos, and sharing meals with friends and family. Caitlin will be working at Le Bonheur Children's Hospital in the Child Life Department. She will be living with Ryan, Stacey, and Eleanor Hays and will be mentored by Lauren Lam.

JohnDavid Anthony is a graduate of Middle Tennessee State University with a degree in Agribusiness. He grew up in Murfreesboro, Tennessee and enjoys fishing, hunting, hiking, soccer, line dancing, and concerts. He is a huge fan of the University of Tennessee and hopes to one day go to the Men's Soccer World Cup! He spent six weeks this past summer in East Asia with a Campus Outreach team that shared the Gospel with college students and connected them to other Chinese Christians and missionaries. JohnDavid will be working at Farmland Properties. He will be living with Sandy Leatherman and will be mentored by Mike Warner.

Ellis Bauknight is a graduate of Auburn University with a degree in Social Science Education. She grew up in Spartanburg, South Carolina, and she enjoys all sports, creative writing, Young Life, skiing, and traveling. She has over 200 pairs of socks, none of which are white, and her favorite pair has watermelons on them. She hopes to visit all seven natural wonders of the world and to go to every baseball stadium in the United States with her father. Ellis will be working at New Hope Christian Academy. She will be living with Matthew, Lauren, and Mary Steele Gant and will be mentored by Leslie Morgan.

Brandon Chase is a graduate of The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a degree in History. He was born in Nashville but grew up in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. In college Brandon was a Young Life leader, was heavily involved in RUF, and went on a quest to play every intramural sport offered. He has been fortunate to travel to Uganda, Japan, and Europe and is always up for an adventure. He hopes to one day attend the World Cup and the Olympics. Brandon will be working at Booster. He will be living with Blake, Jaclyn, Lillian and Samuel Bergeron and will be mentored by Blake Lam.

Alix de Witt is proud of being a Memphian – born and raised. She grew up learning from and investing in the body of Second Presbyterian Church. She graduated from Rhodes College this past May with a degree in English Literature. During the Fellows Program she will be working in communications for Monogram Foods and their philanthropic foundation, Monogram Loves Kids. Alix has a love for insightful or witty quotes, the beach at night, and substantive conversations. She will be living with Matt, Mindy, and Mia Gandy and will be mentored by Susan Denney.

Adrian Glory is a graduate of the Universidad Autónoma de Yucatan where he studied Marketing and International Business. He grew up in Mérida, Mexico. He loves everything about soccer. For Adrian, an awesome night would consist of live music and a good burger. He dreams one day of writing and making a motion picture. Adrian's favorite movie is "Before Sunrise" and his favorite band is CCR. What does he miss most about Mérida? The cenotes (Google it!). Adrian will be working at Southern Sun Asset Management. He will be living with Antoinette and John Good and will be mentored by Josh Yates.

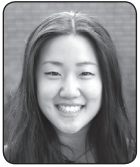

Ted Ling Hu graduated from Rhodes College with a degree in Biomathematics. He was born in Taipei, Taiwan, and later moved to Pretoria, South Africa, before returning to Taiwan for his middle school and high school studies. He enjoys hanging out at coffee shops, playing basketball, listening to music, and watching movies. He has been in Memphis for the past four years. Ted hopes to pursue a Masters in Biotechnology and will be working at University of Tennessee Health Science Center. He will be living with Jay and Laura Cofield and will be mentored by Blake Bergeron.

Katie Hunt is a graduate of Miami University in Ohio, with degrees in Health Promotion and Family Studies. She grew up in River Forest, Illinois, which is just west of Chicago. She loves playing outside, especially on the water. Katie also loves kids and playing sports, and played water polo during college. She enjoys cooking and bringing old and new friends together through that – she loves when lots of her people are in one place together. A high hope she has for this year is that “y’all” will become a part of her vocabulary. Katie will be working at WellWorX. She will be living with Bob, Jane, Ben, and Holland Mims and will be mentored by Linda Hull.

Sam Jones is a recent graduate of Rhodes College with a degree in Religious Studies. He grew up in Brentwood, Tennessee, but has since fallen in love with Memphis. He is an avid reader (rumor has it that he strives to read a full book each day), writer, gardener, and baker. He enjoys perusing used bookstores in search of cookbooks, vintage novels, and all manners of religiously-oriented literature. He is looking forward to many great conversations over this next year and is always looking for more recommendations for his ever-growing reading list! Sam will be working at Le Bonheur Children’s Hospital in the Child life Department. He will be living with Rick and Carey Moore and will be mentored by Price Morrison.

Sarah Kim graduated from the University of Memphis with a degree in Music Business. She was born in Honolulu, Hawaii, but grew up here in Memphis. After a year at the University of Tennessee-Knoxville, she transferred to the U of M and started walking with the Lord at the Campus Outreach New Years Conference in 2013. She then spent two summers in Orlando, Florida at the Campus Outreach Orlando Project sharing her faith and discipling others. Sarah has a huge heart for worship and world missions, plays three instruments, sings, and loves to eat and cook healthy food. Sarah will be working at Pure Barre. She will be living with Paul, Nancy, and Laura Neal and will be mentored by Debbie Perkins.

Daniel Pouget is from Lebanon, Tennessee. He graduated from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville where he studied Business Administration, with a concentration in Management. He enjoys spending time with family and friends, running, reading, and watching the Vols. He’s known for his sweet tooth and is not afraid to raid your pantry. He wants to live life to the fullest and make a difference in Memphis. Daniel will be working at Paragon Bank. He will be living with Richie and Christina Roberts and will be mentored by Dan Whipple.

Jonathan Salinas is from Lewisburg, Tennessee. He graduated from the University of Memphis with a Communications major and a Spanish minor. He loves to sing, eat tacos, and play pickup soccer and basketball. He’s been on mission trips to South Africa and Belize, is bilingual, and considers himself a MexiRican (Mexican and Puerto Rican). He is passionate about dancing and knows how to dance seven styles of traditional Spanish music. Jonathan will be working at Wunderman. He will be living with Isaac and Caroline O’Hare and will be mentored by Andrew Beach.

Lauren Smith is a graduate of Rhodes College with a degree in Biology and a minor in Music. She grew up in Lewisville, Texas and since coming to Memphis has come to love hanging out at coffee shops, reading at Overton Park, and attending concerts. After church services this fall, you can expect to find her watching the Dallas Cowboys game. She spent six weeks in China this summer with Campus Outreach to build relationships with college students and share the Gospel. Lauren plans to pursue a career in medicine. Lauren will be working at Tenet Health. She will be living with Howard, Kimberly, Elijah, Lilly, James, and Parker Graham and will be mentored by Susan Warner.
