Conclusion

Discussion Questions

1. How might living according to God's word feel like a restriction rather than a refuge to you?
2. What is the contrast made between God and those who oppose him? What hope does this give when the Father is our refuge?
3. If you are a Christian, how does the fact you were once an enemy of God demonstrate his grace even more?

Going Deeper

1. How does this psalm give you a deeper understanding of your need for God's wisdom found in his word?
2. From what other sources do you often seek refuge?
